OTHER EVENTS

APRIL 10, FRIDAY, ASU COLLEGE OF LAW GREAT HALL, 7:00 PM

What Do We Mean When We Say We Want Peace? The speaker is Ira Chernus, co-director of the Peace and Conflict Studies Program at the University of Colorado. Admission is free.

APRIL 25, FRIDAY, TEMPE INSTITUTE OF RELIGION AT ASU, 7:00 PM (1000 South McAllister Ave, Tempe, South of University and West of Rural) A Conversation Between a Mormon & an Evangelical.

This is a public lecture with: Dr. Robert L. Millet, a Mormon and professor of Religious Education at BYU; and Rev. Gregory C.V. Johnson, an evangelical Baptist Pastor in Utah since 1992, who was raised in the Mormon Church. The two talk about differences that are of eternal importance without shouting at each other. Admission is free.

APRIL 25 & 26, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, JESUS SEMINAR, SCOTTSDALE

For information see the website (westarinstitute.org/Events/JSORs/Scottsdale2008.html). Also talk to Ed or Ruth Kearns, Carl or LaDonna Wallen, or Ann Hardt, who recently attended the spring Jesus Seminar conference at Santa Rosa, CA. These seminars are given by accredited scholars, who will be speaking from the perspective of Progressive Christianity, and Christianity for the 21st century. There is a charge for admission.
